

Some of ESCCAP's achievements from 2015–17

01

ESCCAP guideline 7: Control of Parasites and Fungal Infections in Small Pet Mammals published in English and translated into Polish

02

New modular guide series 1: Worm Control in Dogs and Cats published in English and translated into Danish, Dutch, French, German, Hungarian, Polish and Spanish

03

New modular guide series 3: Control of Ectoparasites in Dogs and Cats published in English and translated into Dutch, French, Hungarian, Polish and Spanish

04

New ESCCAP General Recommendations poster published in English and translated into Danish, Dutch, French, Hungarian, Italian and Polish

05

New guide to the treatment and control of equine gastro-intestinal parasite infections in progress

06

New diagnostic techniques manual in progress

07

New life cycle images created for the modular guide series and also available to download from the website

08

Guidelines 1, 3, 5 and 6 reviewed and revised

09

ESCCAP guideline 1: Worm Control in Dogs and Cats translated into Bulgarian

10

Updated AMP-friendly ESCCAP website with a responsive layout that makes it suitable for all platforms

11

New websites created on behalf of ESCCAP Hungary and Portugal

12

Updated parasite distribution maps available online

13

ESCCAP Echinococcus meeting special issue including online open access

14

ESCCAP VBD conference, abstract booklet and special issue

15

Three annual meetings with members and sponsors given the opportunity to communicate opinions and ask questions

16

Three national association events with members reporting on activities from the previous year and sharing news, ideas and resources

17

Scholarly acclaim for ESCCAP special issue papers – certificates for highly cited research

18

Increased sharing of resources amongst ESCCAP national associations

19

Increased collaboration with FECAVA, EVPC, ABCD, CAPC, SEVC, TroCCAP and WSAVA

20

ESCCAP and FECAVA to co-author a paper on parasite drug resistance in companion animals

21

Attendance and presentations at International events, clinical and veterinary nurse workshops

22

Representing ESCCAP on the CALLISTO project – Companion Animals multisectorial interprofessional Interdisciplinary Strategic Think tank On zoonoses

23

Collaboration with FECAVA Eurocongress to hold a parasitology symposium as part of the main 2019 scientific programme

24

Stakeholder for the European Medicines Agency consultation papers