

Kennel licensing in various European Countries

6 out of 7 countries require a license for breeding and boarding kennels*

* the specification determining whether something is classed as a 'breeding kennel' differs between countries

