

Some of ESCCAP's achievements from 2018–2021

PUBLICATIONS

- Guideline 8 published: *A Guide to the Treatment and Control of Equine Gastrointestinal Parasite Infections. It has been translated by six national associations.
- New modular guide series 5 published: *Control of Vector-Borne Diseases in Dogs and Cats. It has also been translated into Dutch, Hungarian and Polish.
- 5 new fact sheets have been published: *Points to consider when importing a rescue dog from abroad, Giardia infection in dogs and cats, Raw meat-based diets, Scheme for individual deworming of dogs and Scheme for individual deworming of cats.
- The following publications have all been revised: GL1, GL2, GL3, GL5, GL6, MG1, MG2 and FS1.
- All life cycle images have been updated.
- A new Toxocara fact sheet is in progress.
- A new diagnostics guideline is in progress.
- A new travelling pets guideline is in progress.
- ESCCAP has agreed a three-year licence with CAPC to develop parasite prevalence maps, initially using results from laboratories throughout Germany. Maps will be uploaded to the ESCCAP website.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

- New website created on behalf of ESCCAP Denmark.
- Ukraine launches new website.
- Many NAs have updated their websites.
- Frequently asked questions section added to main website.
- New social media presence on Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn.

EVENTS

- ESCCAP attended WAAVP in Madison, US.
- Parasitology symposium formed part of the main scientific programme at the postponed 2020 FECAVA Eurocongress.
- Annual meetings have taken place at which members and sponsors have been given the opportunity to communicate opinions and ask questions.
- Attendance and presentations at International events, clinical and veterinary nurse workshops, some in person and some online due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

EXPANSION

- ESCCAP has recruited Greece as a new national association.
- ESCCAP has recruited Ukraine as a new national association.
- New selection committee formed to recruit new members and countries.

SPONSORSHIP & SUPPORT

- ESCCAP has acquired Vetoquinol as a new ruby sponsor.
- Acquisition of more supporting organisations: the American Heartworm Society (AHS), the European College of Veterinary Dermatology (ECVD) and the National Center for Veterinary Parasitology (NCVP).

MISC

- ESCCAP has been a stakeholder for European Medicines Agency consultation papers.
- Continuing professional development articles have been produced by ESCCAP members.
- ESCCAP has collated an extensive parasite image library.